In cases of expulsion the Cooperative shall pay an amount equal to the membership fee paid by him, within sixty (60) days thereafter. In cases of death or ineligibility, it shall pay such value to him or his personal representative within two years thereafter, without interest. ARTICLE IX

Section 1

The business and affairs of the Cooperative shall be managed by a board of nine (9) directors, which shall exercise all of the powers of the Cooperative except such as are by law or by these Articles of Incorporation or by the Bylaws conferred upon or reserved to the members.

Section 2

At the first regular meeting to be held on the date specified in Article VIII of these Articles of Incorporation, directors shall be elected by and from the members of the Cooperative to serve until the next succeeding regular annual meeting of the members as fixed in the Bylaws of the Cooperative, or until their successors shall have been elected and shall have qualified. Thereafter, at each annual meeting of the members, directors shall be elected by ballot by and from the members to serve until the next annual meeting of the members, or until their successors shall have been elected and shall have qualified, subject to the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws with respect to the removal of directors. No member shall be eligible to become or remain a director or to hold any position of trust in the Cooperative who is not a bona fide resident in the area served by the Cooperative, or who is in any way employed by or financially interested in a competing enterprise or a business selling electric energy or supplies to the Cooperative, or a business primarily engaged in selling electrical or plumbing appliances, fixtures or supplies to the members of the Cooperative. The Bylaws of the Cooperative may provide additional qualifications not in conflict with law or these Articles of Incorporation. Nothing in this section contained shall, or shall be construed to affect in any manner whatsoever the validity of any action taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 3

The Bylaws may provide for a procedure for nominations. In that case a ballot marked "Ballot for Directors" containing the names of all the nominees for the Board of Directors, alphabetically arranged and stating the residence of each, shall be mailed with the notice of the meeting. The secretary shall also mail with the notice of the meeting a statement of the number of directors to be elected. Such statement of the Secretary shall also inform the members of the manner in which they may vote by mail or other electronic means, if approved by the Board of Directors for directors as provided in this section. Any member may vote by mail or other electronic means, if electronic voting is approved, for directors by marking on the ballot an "X" opposite the names of the number of candidates equal to the number of directors to be elected and enclosing the ballot in a sealed envelope bearing [the member's name] and addressed to the secretary, or if electronically transmitted, as instructed. If approved by the Directors in advance of the meeting for the election of directors, voting of the directors may be done by Electronic Ballot received from the member by the Secretary or its representative at the Cooperative before 4:30 p.m. local time, on the last business day before the meeting for the election of directors, in accordance with such policies and procedures as may be adopted from time-to-time by the directors to promote the orderly, secure, and accurate voting and tabulation of ballots sent and received by electronic transmission. Any electronic ballots received after the above-stated deadline for any reason, including technical difficulties, will not be considered valid ballots. When such ballot so enclosed is received by mail or by electronic ballot as provided in this section from any member, it shall be accepted and counted as a vote for directors by ballot of such member at such meeting. If a husband and wife hold a joint membership, they may vote by mail or by electronic ballot as provided in this section for directors by jointly marking and enclosing the ballot hereinabove provided for. Notwithstanding anything in this section contained, failure to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall not affect in any manner whatsoever the validity of any election of directors.

Section 4

Subject to the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation, vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors between annual meetings of the members of the Cooperative shall be filled by a majority vote of the remaining directors, and directors thus selected shall serve until the next annual meeting of the members or until their successors shall have been elected and shall have qualified.

Section 5

Any member may bring charges against an officer or director by filing them in writing with the secretary, together with a petition signed by ten per centum (10%) of the members, requesting the removal of the officer or director in question. The removal shall be voted upon at the next regular or special meeting of the members and any vacancy created by such removal may be filled by the members at such meeting. The director or officer against whom such charges have been brought shall be informed in writing of the charges previous to the meeting and shall have an opportunity at the meeting to be heard in person or by counsel and to present evidence; and the person or persons bringing the charges against him shall have the same opportunity.

Section 6

No director shall be eligible for re-election to the Board of Directors who has served five or more consecutive three-year terms as a director.

ARTICLE X

Section 1

No dividends shall be paid upon memberships in the Cooperative. Subject to the provisions of any mortgage or deed of trust given or assumed by the Cooperative, the Board of Directors shall, after the expiration of each fiscal year and after paying or making provision for the payment of all obligations and expenses of the Cooperative property chargeable against its revenues and receipts for such fiscal year, apply the unexpended revenues and receipts for such fiscal year as follows:

- (a) to provide a reasonable reserve for maintenance depreciation, obsolescence, bad debts, or contingent losses or expenses;
- (b) At least ten percent (10%) of the remaining earnings must be added to surplus until surplus equals either thirty percent (30%) of the total of all capital paid in for stock or memberships, plus all unpaid patronage dividends, plus certificates of indebtedness payable upon liquidation, earnings from non-member business, and earnings arising from the earnings of other Cooperative organizations of which the association is a member, or $1,000, whichever is greater. No addition shall be made to surplus when it exceeds either fifty percent (50%) of the total or $1,000, whichever is greater.
- (c) not less than one per centum (1%) nor more than five per centum (5%) of such earnings in excess of reserves may be placed in an educational fund, to be used as the directors deem suitable for teaching or promoting cooperation and the effective use of electricity; and
- (d) all remaining net earnings shall be allocated to a revolving fund and shall be credited to the account of each member ratably in proportion to the business he has done with the Cooperative during such year; such credits are herein referred to as "deferred patronage refunds."
- (e) The directors shall determine the percentage or the amount of said allocation that currently shall be paid in cash, provided that so long as there are unpaid deferred patronage dividends for prior years, the amount currently payable in cash shall not exceed twenty percent (20%) of said allocation. All said remaining allocation not so paid in cash shall be transferred to a revolving fund and credited to said members and subscribers.

Section 2

The members may, at any meeting, control the amount to be allocated to surplus or educational fund within the limits specified in Section 1 of this Article X.

Section 3

The Directors may use the revolving fund to pay the obligations of or add to the capital of the Cooperative. In such event, the deferred patronage dividends credited to members shall constitute a charge upon the revolving fund and future additions thereto and on the corporate assets subordinate to creditors then or thereafter existing. Deferred patronage dividends for any year shall have priority over those for any subsequent year, except as provided elsewhere in these Articles of Incorporation and except that the Directors may, at their discretion, pay deferred patronage dividends of deceased natural persons who are members without reference to the order to priority herein described.

Section 4

The Cooperative may issue certificates for deferred patronage refunds, but such a certificate shall be non-transferable except to a party eligible to, and accepted for, membership who becomes the owner or operator of the real property formerly owned or operated by a member and served by the Cooperative.

Section 5

Credits or certificates referred to in Sections 3 and 4 of this Article X shall not mature until the dissolution or liquidation of the Cooperative, but shall be callable by the Cooperative at any time in the order of priority specified in Section 3 of this Article X.

ARTICLE XI

Section 1

The Cooperative may not sell, mortgage, lease or otherwise dispose of any of its property other than:

- a) Property which, in the judgement of the Board of Directors, is or will be neither necessary nor useful in operating and maintaining the Cooperative's system, provided, however, that sales of such property shall not in any one year exceed in value ten per centum of the value of all of the property of the Cooperative;
- b) Services of all kinds, including electric energy;
- c) Personal property, acquired for resale;
- d) Dispositions made in the usual and regular course of business;

provided, however, that notwithstanding anything herein contained, the Board of Directors, without authorization by the members, shall have full power and authority to borrow money from United States of America or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or from a national financing institution, organized on a cooperative plan for the purpose of financing its members' programs, projects and undertakings, in which the Cooperative holds membership and in connection with such borrowing to authorize the making and issuance of bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness and, to secure the payment thereof, to authorize the delivery of a mortgage or mortgages, or a deed or deeds of trust upon, or the pledging or encumbrancing of any or all of the property, assets, rights, privileges, licenses, franchises, and permits of the Cooperative, whether acquired or to be acquired, and wherever situated, all upon such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors shall determine.

Section 2

A sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the Cooperative, with or without the good will, if not made in the usual and regular course of business, may be made upon terms and conditions and for such consideration which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any other Cooperative association organized under the statutes of the State of Iowa, as long as such sale, lease, exchange or other disposition is authorized in the following manner:

- a) The Board of Directors of the Cooperative shall adopt a resolution recommending the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition and directing the submission thereof to a vote at a meeting of the membership, which may be either an annual or special meeting.
- b) Written or printed notice of the proposal shall be given to each member of record entitled to vote at the meeting within the time and in the manner provided by these Articles of Incorporation for the giving of notice of meetings of members and whether the meeting be an annual or special meeting, shall state that the purpose, or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed sale, lease exchange or other disposition of substantially all of the property and assets of this Cooperative.

- c) At the meeting the membership may authorize the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition any may fix, or may authorize the Board of Directors to fix, any and all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by this Cooperative. Such authorization shall be approved if two-thirds (2/ 3) of the members vote affirmatively on a ballot on which a majority of all voting members of the Cooperative participate.
- d) After the authorization by the vote of members, the Board of Directors of the Cooperative may nevertheless in its discretion abandon the sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of assets, subject to the rights of third parties under any contracts relating thereto without further action or approval by the members.

ARTICLE XII

Upon dissolution or liquidation, the assets of the Cooperative shall be applied to the payment of liquidation expenses and then to the payment of all obligations of the Cooperative other than patronage refunds or certificates issued therefor. The remainder of such assets shall be distributed in the following order of priority:

- (a) payment of any deferred patronage refund or certificate issued therefor, and if the assets are insufficient to pay all such patronage refunds or certificates issued therefor, they shall be prorated to the payment of all such deferred patronage refunds or certificates issued therefor;
- (b) payment to members of the membership fee paid by them; and
- (c) the remaining assets shall be distributed among the members according to law.

ARTICLE XIII

Except as otherwise provided by Iowa law, a director, officer, employee, or member of the Cooperative is not liable on the debts or obligations, and a director, officer, member or other volunteer is not personally liable in that capacity for a claim based upon an act or omission of the person performed in the discharge of the person's duties, except for a breach of the duty of loyalty to the Cooperative, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of the law, or for a transaction from which the person derives an improper personal benefit.

The Cooperative may indemnify any present or former director, officer, employee, member or volunteer in the manner and in the instances authorized in Section 496A.4A Iowa Code (1987) as amended.

ARTICLE XIV

The directors, by a vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the directors, may adopt alter, amend or repeal Bylaws for the Cooperative, and the same shall remain in force until altered, amended, or repealed by a vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of the members present or represented at any annual meeting or special meeting of the members.

ARTICLE XV

The Cooperative may amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner now or hereinafter prescribed by law.
